CORAM : DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

April 12, 2006.

P.C.:

There is a concurrent finding of fact by the Courts below that the landlord has established his bonafide requirement. The discussion of evidence in para 14 of the judgment of the District Judge shows that Plaintiff Nos.1 and 3 are residing in two blocks comprising of two room portions. Considering the size of the family and the presence of an aged mother, the Court below has found that the existing accommodation in the occupation of the Plaintiffs is insufficient for their need. No case for interference is made out. Petition dismissed.
